

A Place for All

Use of Sacred Space

The sacred space is open and accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week. It is open to persons of all faiths, spiritualities and cultural traditions.

It is also open to persons of no specific tradition and is a mutually welcoming and inclusive space.

The sacred space may be used for formal or specialized religious ceremonies, rites or rituals as deemed supportive of patients, visitors or staff need.

Worship Services at Spiritual Space

Christian Services (Sunday)
Muslim Prayer Hour (Friday)

Baha'i Faith (Saturday)

Roman Catholic Prayer Service (Sunday)

For most up-to-date schedule check the posting outside the sacred space

A Meaningful Space for Everyone

A space specially designed with natural light filling the room and a view of a greenery outlook.

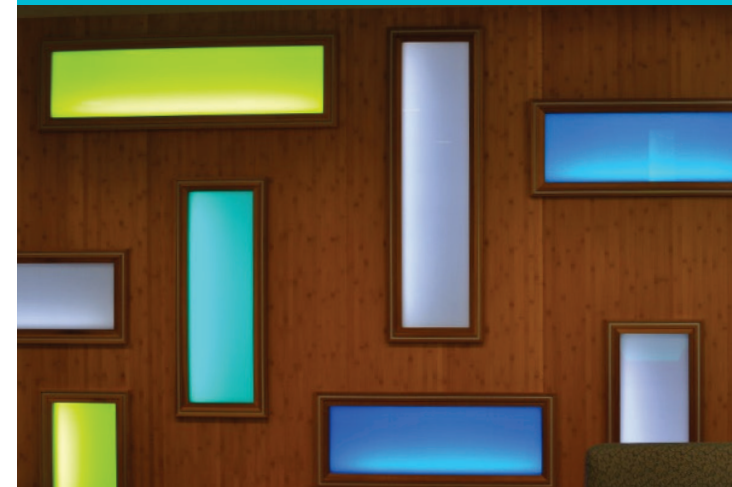

The space is created with the concept of spirituality being critical to a huge portion of our community in mind.

It's designed to include all cultures & beliefs.

Abbotsford Regional Hospital
& Cancer Centre

Sacred Space

Looking for peace of mind & a place
to focus on your spiritual needs?

Where to find it:

Directions

Enter main entrance and walk through the Atrium.

Pass the Gift Shop and turn left at the first hallway (under JLIF sign).

The Sacred Space is a short distance down the hallway located through the first door on the left side.

